Radetzky Café
Corso Garibaldi 105, Milan

Vincenzo Iannetti opened the Radetzky Café in 1988, transforming a simple bar into a place with a strong aesthetic, thanks to the work of architect Florenzia Costa. It soon became a touchstone for the Milanese elite, especially architects and designers. Always intended to be open from breakfast till night, you'll always find a barman willing to satisfy all your savoury, sweet or alcoholic desires. Best cappuccino in town. Catilina chairs by Azucena

Latteria San Marco
Via San Marco 24, Milan

One of Milan's very small treasures, the Latteria San Marco is a must-see if you come for a visit. Arturo is chef and his wife Maria serves at the tables. Surrounded by flowery art pieces, we suggest you try the healthy and totally organic vegetables, which grow in Maria's garden, in Piacenza. The menu changes every day to guarantee a top quality meal. They don't accept reservations, so show up early. Montecatini chair by Molteni & C.
